On the Court's own motion, the parties are directed to file supplemental briefs limited to the question of whether sentencing a juvenile to life without parole on the basis of the offender's history of treated mental illness constitutes a violation of the Eighth Amendment. The parties are encouraged to consider this question in the light of Miller v Alabama, although the Court's inquiry is not limited to that case.

Briefs are limited to 20 pages in length and must be filed before January 8, 2021.
